Who is a parishioner?
One who is registered and regularly participates in the liturgical life of the parish and demonstrates support of the parish mission by completing and fulfilling an annual commitment of time, treasure and talent.

To register in the Parish:
We welcome anyone interested in being an active member of our parish. Please call the Parish Office (232-5012) and an introductory letter and information regarding the registration process will be sent to you.

Baptisms:
First time parents (or those who have not attended a class within the last three years) must attend instruction classes, which are held monthly. Classes are held at the Parish Conference Center (use driveway entrance at 27th and Virginia). Parent(s) must be registered in the parish a minimum of 4 months prior to the baptism. Parent(s) must contact the church office to sign up for the class. Baptisms are celebrated monthly, information on dates is given out at the class.

Marriages:
Church law requires individuals to be registered and active in the parish no less than six months prior to scheduling a wedding. Couples are then required to contact Fr. Jerry at least 8 months prior to the anticipated wedding date and BEFORE making any other arrangements or reserving a reception hall.

FATHER'S FORUM

"GODLY MEN NEEDED!"

On this Father's Day weekend, I am reminded of the great gift of a godly man who is husband and father. A godly man is a man who places God first in his life and lives accordingly. So according to both scripture and the teachings of the Church, that means that being a Catholic man is like eating a pizza. It's impossible to list the ingredients - the crust, the sauce, the toppings, etc., but the taste is a blend. There should be a blend of many things for a good Catholic man, and it is a blending of relationships.

As an adult son, a man should gain a sense of wisdom that comes from living and give thanks for his parents and attempt to repay them for their many gifts and sacrifices. And in some cases, to accept and maybe even rise above their mistakes and shortcomings. This man realizes how important it has been to hear "I love you" as he comes to understand how it is equally important for him to say it, to say it now, because time is passing more and more quickly.

As husband, a godly man remembers he is a co-celebrant along with his wife in the sacrament of marriage. Modern society warns couples to "Watch out! Don't fall into the trap of giving more than you get." The Scriptures and the church teaches that marriage is for giving, that it is for openness to love and to life. This means he does not want things just for him, but knows it is "ours." What comes is just exactly what was in the vows he agreed to: good times and bad, sickness and health. What comes is a love that remains despite the bad and the sickness; a love that actually grows stronger through the obstacles and the crosses.

As father, a Catholic man turns his heart and mind to God and calls Him Father and realizes that there are other humans who use the same title for him. They call to him and ask him for help and guidance and support and care. Fatherhood teaches a Catholic man about sacrifice. Giving up and going without are inseparable from being a dad. A Catholic dad knows his kids are watching. They may not always listen, but they never fail to see what he does. And so if he wants his children to be people of prayer who will be blessed with heaven, he must show them what it means to be a man of prayer. If he wants them to make the Mass a central part of their lives, he must make it a central part of his.

Finally, part of being a Catholic man is not just answering the call to married, single or religious life; it's answering what Mother Teresa has referred to as "the call within the call." In whatever profession, craft or trade he finds himself, a Catholic man has a set of criteria to measure success that often differs from those around him. The definition of success Christ taught (Mt 25: 14-46), the one the Church teaches, doesn't have to do with income, with fame or with power. The one who dies with the most toys does NOT win. The truly successful man is the one who had taken the talent, that gift, however large or small it may be that God has given him, and has used it to the best of his ability.

The truly successful man serves Christ by serving others, at home, at work and in the community. We need more godly men.

Happy Father's Day! Fr. Jerry

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

Like the sower in today's Gospel, I scatter as seed my gifts of time, talent, and resources; and I trust that, by God's grace and in God's time, these small gifts of myself may grow and flourish and help to bring about the Kingdom of God.

STEWARD OF THE WEEK

Thank you to Regis Sunneberg who coordinates the scheduling of the ushers for funerals held at St. Matthew Church. Thank you, Regis, for your ministry and sharing of your time and talent.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

In many places around the globe, the Church struggles to be a visible sign of Christ's peace: in poor dioceses where many depend on the Church for social and pastoral support; in regions where Catholics are persecuted and must be helped discreetly; in nations overloaded with refugees or victims of war and natural disasters. The Peter's Pence Collection gives us the opportunity to extend a sign of peace to the Body of Christ around the world. Our gifts to this annual Collection help the Holy Father strengthen dioceses, religious orders, and struggling communities of faith when they need it most. Help the Holy Father continue to cast the peace of Christ upon the world. Please be generous in the Peter's Pence Collection. Visit www.vatican.va and search for "Peter's Pence" for more information about the Peter's Pence Collection and the work it makes possible.

CHURCH RENOVATION UPDATE

You probably noticed that some of the back and front pews have been removed from the church. This is to make room for the equipment which is being used to reach the ceilings for the lighting replacement and the drywall repair. Once the work on the north side of the church is complete, then those pews will be put back in place, and pews on the south side of the church will be removed. Please use extra caution when walking around the areas where the pews once were. During the weeks ahead, we could still use some extra help to clean up the church on Friday evenings or Saturday mornings in preparation for the weekend/Sunday Masses. If you can lend a hand, or if you are part of a parish organization or ministry that would like to volunteer as a group to help one week, please contact Marty Conner (235-6906) or call the Parish Office.

AROUND ST. MATTHEW'S

WE REMEMBER IN PRAYER THOSE WHO HAVE RECENTLY DIED

Jordan Barranco, son of Juan and Elizabeth Barranco, brother of Ryan and Jerilyn Barranco and father of Jordan Barranco, Jr.

Rita Keith, aunt of Karen Scott.

Lee Kerr, sister of Dorothy Barnett, aunt of Deron and Jared Barnett and great aunt of Jordan, Ethan, Brianna and Trinity Barnett.

Our thoughts and prayers are with their loved ones in this time of sadness.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Everyone can participate in Perpetual Adoration because everyone can find at least one hour a week to spend with Jesus. Adorers are needed for the following hours —

- Monday, 10 p.m.
- Tuesday, 9 p.m.
- Wednesday, 9 a.m., 2 p.m., 4 p.m., 7 p.m., 9 p.m.
- It is vacation time again. Please let Sue know if you have a sub covering your hour so she knows who to call if there is a problem.

Please call Sue (354-7762) if you can help with one of these hours or an hour of your choice. Please note, from June 14th—June 20th, please call the Parish Office if there is a need/concern regarding the Adoration Chapel.

GUIDE BOOK & DIRECTORY ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the Church. This book will be the Who, What, Where, When, Why and How of our parish. The book is being provided at no cost to our Church, including the mailing to each family, and again is being subsidized by local businesses that advertise in it. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office. Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

BE SURE TO PUT THESE DATES ON YOUR CALENDAR

Celebrate the Priesthood... Past, Present, Future

On September 15th the parish will be celebrating the St. Matthew 2012 Gala! This year's theme is Rhinestones and Rawhide. The Gala will include both a Silent and Live Auction that is sure to please all who attend! In order to make this event a success we do need the donation of auction items. Live Auction items should be valued at a minimum of $250. Ideas include travel, furniture, weekend get-aways, fine jewelry, artwork, etc. We will be accepting 20-25 great Live Auction items. The Silent Auction will include approximately 60 items with the following categories:

Home and Garden
Body, Mind, & Spirit
Dining and Entertainment
Collectibles
Kids Korner

All items should be new and the collectible items should be quality.

All auction donations may be taken to the Parish Office no later than July 31st. This will allow time for information to be published in the Auction Booklet and have it in the hands of those attending before the Gala date.

For questions regarding the Live Auction items, please contact Joe Lopez (267-7342) and for Silent Auction items, please call Jeannine Wyatt (266-2011). Thank you for your generosity and helping to make the Gala a success.

The family of Mark Coker would like to extend our sincere appreciation! Father Jerry and Deacon Nathan were the best. Bob Broxterman and the music of the new Funeral Choir were so inspiring and uplifting. The "Ave Maria" was a surprise and so beautiful. The food at the lunch was wonderful. We received so many compliments from our relatives and friends. The outpouring of love and support from our parish family is outstanding. Thank you so much.

PARKING REMINDER

Please park in any of our 4 parking lots when coming to Mass. It is preferred that there be no parking in the street along Maryland Street or 28th Street. There is always plenty of parking in the east lot (enter from Ohio Street) and the north parking lot (enter from 27th Street). Please do not park on the new rectory lawn as there are sprinkler heads that could be damaged. Thank you for your cooperation.
